"Bad" Tom Smith.

Below is the confession of "Bad" Tom Smith, who was hung at Jackson Friday. The drop fell at 1:45 p. m. and he died in 10 minutes. "Save me God," were his last words. "Yes, I killed Dr. Rader. We had been drunk together for several days, and that night we tried to get Mrs. McQuinn to go after Louise Southern, a girl he had been coming to see. She failed to find the girl and Rader got mad at her and she told me to kill him or he would kill me. I was too drunk to know better and I shot him twice. Now I'll tell you about the other men I killed. The first one was Joe Part. He came to my house above Hazard and I shot him with a needle gun, and Joe Adkins and I then hit out for Joe Eversole and Joe shot him and Nick Combs. I shot at them as they fell and then robbed Eversole's body of $30. John McKnight was the next man I killed. I shot him in the fight at Hazard. Bob Brothers was shooting at him at the time and it may be he killed him. Jack Combs and I killed Robert Cornett next. He was cutting saw-logs when we came upon him. I shot first. We killed him because he belonged to the Eversoles. I was at Jesse Fields' and heard Felt French, Joe Adkins, Boone Frazier, Mrs. Fields and Jesse Tharp make the plot to kill Judge Josiah Combs, and afterward heard Adkins say he fired the shot that killed him. French offered me money, but I never hired to him. Yes; he gave me clothes."

HOW THEY BEGAN LIFE.—Sarah Bernhardt was a dressmaker's apprentice, Adelaide Neilson began life as a child's nurse; Miss Braddon, the novelist, was an actress in the provinces; Christine Nilsson was a poor Swedish peasant and ran barefooted in childhood; Minnie Hauk's father was a German shoemaker in most straightened circumstances; Melba, the greatest prima donna of the present day, is tall and handsome. Her boy is 11 years old; she has been singing only six years. Her maiden name was Mitchell, her father being a Scotchman, her mother of Spanish descent. From the latter she inherited her musical gift, and as a girl she was one of the best pianists in Melbourne, her native city. She was married at 17. Her husband, Mr. Armstrong, is a handsome athlete, and lives in England, while Melba's home is in Paris.

It was Hardin's more engaging personality his greater potentiality upon the stump and his not less than equal fitness for the position to which both he and Mr. Clay aspired that gave the victory to the magnetic man of Mercer. But for the currency issue, which had no proper place in the contest, it would have been Hardin first and the rest nowhere. With that question relegated to the rear, the people of Kentucky will have no difficulty in judging whether they will have Hardin or Bradley—a democrat or a republican—to be governor of the Commonwealth.—Louisville Times.

Central Holiness Camp Meeting, Wilmore, Ky., meets July 29th to August 9th, 1895. One and one-third fare for the round trip via Queen & Crescent every day of meeting from all points between Cincinnati and Chattanooga inclusive. Ask agents for particulars. W. C. Rinearsen, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

To the average eye not more than 5,000 stars are visible; to some extraordinary keen eyes about 8,000 are visible. Through the largest telescopes about 50,000,000 stars are seen, and there is every reason to believe that millions more exist.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—We are all happy to see that your entertaining and accomplished correspondent from Kidd's store, after a long silence, has once more made his appearance in the INTERIOR JOURNAL. His letters are always read eagerly by his many friends in this section.

—McBeath and Prewitt have returned from Louisville looking as if they had been through one of Bonaparte's campaigns in Russia, but Boyle and George have not turned up yet. We are uneasy about them; fear that they took their straight without any dilution. Hope our fears are groundless.

—Capt. J. A. Goodall returned from Atlanta Friday. Mart Cowden came in on the back Thursday evening after an absence of about nine months. Last October he went to San Antonio, for the benefit of his health. Though he still looks feeble, he has improved in appearance. He gained 14 pounds during the winter months, but his weight declined when hot weather came on. Prior Young after an absence of some weeks, returned Friday from the Commercial College in Louisville. G. A. Prewitt returned with him from the democratic convention.

—Hearing fascinating music in the parlor of Prescott's hotel last night, we went across the street to see about it, and found that it was executed by Mrs. Dollie Coots, who had come back to see the "old folks at home" and many other friends. When she left here the 12th of last December to visit a married sister in Owensboro she was Miss Dollie Whipp. Being of a romantic disposition, like many other young ladies of her age, she became dissatisfied and wanted a change and so she changed both title and name and it is also reported that thereby she made a young farmer by the name of Wilson Coots very happy. She left her "feller" in a wheat field, but he will be on in three weeks to take her back.

—The Casey County Medical Association met in the county court room here at 10 a. m. Thursday with Dr. J. T. Wesley in the chair. Dr. Patrick Humphrey who was to have read a paper, being absent, the proceedings were opened by a paper from Dr. L. S. Wesley on the Pathology of Gastro Intestinal Catarrh, followed by a discussion of the same by the Association. In the afternoon Dr. Bertie Carpenter, of Hustonville, read a paper on the Diagnosis of Malignant and Benign Tumors, which was discussed by Drs. Isaiah Wesley, J. T. Wesley, J. T. Hughes, H. Brown, — Barker, O. H. McRoberts and the chairman, J. T. Wesley. Dr. J. T. Hughes then introduced a case for examination and treatment of John E. Baldock, and Dr. McRoberts also introduced an aged colored female for examination. Dr. Brown by request reported a recent case for discussion. The program for the next meeting at this place the 4th Thursday in August is as follows: 1. The Doctor of the Present, Past and Future, paper, Dr. H. Brown 2. Cholera Infantum, paper, Dr. Herrin 3. Paper of his own selection, Dr. Bertie Carpenter.

—Elias Kidd and R. L. Murphy arrested Chas. Helm last Tuesday and Joe Sams Wednesday morning. They were delivered into the hands of Sheriff Clay Adams and his deputy, June Brown, who took them to Columbia and surrendered them to the sheriff of Adair county. They were both charged with aiding and abetting the killing of Dan Kidd at Pellyton last week. The two Crockets are either in concealment or have left. It turns out that the report of their going to Columbia and giving themselves up was only put out as a blind. From the best information we can get, the killing of Kidd was a plain murder or a bad case of manslaughter. Dan Kidd was a small man of light muscle and was without defensive weapons, having a small pen-knife only about him, which was found closed in his pocket after his death. It is said that he laid aside his pistol some time back for fear he might get into trouble or do some wrong with it while under the influence of liquor. He was kind hearted and had many friends, and though somewhat annoying in his talk to irascible people when drinking yet he was not considered dangerous or malignant. It is the opinion of all acquainted with the facts in the case that there was no excuse of self defense for him to be so cruelly shot to death in his helpless and unfortunate condition.

The Queen & Crescent Route will sell tickets from all stations in Kentucky to Cincinnati and return at one and one-third fare daily July 26th, to morning trains to August 6th, account Oakley Races. Ask Queen & Crescent agents for particulars.

Gen. Hardin's middle name is Watt. That unmistakably indicates that he knows what's Watt.—St. Paul Globe.

—The term "bachelor girl" having come largely into use, we hope to see more of the "widow-man."

—Mr. Logan Wood, of Lincoln, bought of M. F. Rout, of Lower Garrard, his entire flock of sheep at $2.50 per head.

—Why can't Lancaster organize a debating society like Paint Lick? We think it would be of mutual benefit to the young.

—The wheat harvest is about over and later reports are that the crop near Lancaster is much better than was at first anticipated.

—If reports be true Lancaster will in the near future lose one of her fairest daughters. In our loss we think Nicholasville will gain.

—A Bible class for teachers was organized Sunday afternoon by Dr. J. Lapsley McKee at the Presbyterian church. As Dr. McKee understands this organization thoroughly and if the teachers will only attend it is known they will receive some valuable instruction.

—There was a picnic in Mr. Tom Herring's woods, a few miles from Lancaster Saturday under the auspices of the Baptists. The dinner, which was good and in abundance, was an important feature of the day. A number of young people from Lancaster were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harlan, of Boyle, have been in our city for several days.

How Jones Proposed. Jones—Miss Arabella, do you like cabbage? Arabella—What a strange question, Mr. Jones!

"I know it is a strange question, but please answer it."

"Yes, Mr. Jones, I am very fond of cabbage."

"Ah, I am glad to hear that!"

"Why?"

"Your liking cabbage goes to show that we were born for each other. I do not eat corned beef. Why should not we unite our fortunes?"

"Oh, Mr. Jones!"

"They will be married next week.—Boston Traveller.

In 450 there were a drought and famine all over south Europe. In Italy parents ate their children. It was computed that 600,000 people perished.

THE SICKROOM NURSE.

Her Duties, Her Authority and Her Powers For Evil or Good.

No person has greater power for evil or for good than has the nurse in the sickroom. Her actual authority is second to that of the physician, but her opportunities for exercising it are almost unlimited. If a physician in a country town wishes to secure a trained nurse, he should telegraph or write to the nurses' directory, to some hospital or physician whom he knows, in the nearest adjacent city, stating for what sort of a case he will require a nurse, what he will pay and when he will require her. Such a message should secure for him almost immediately whatever service he requires.

The traits of character which make the ideal nurse are patience, obedience, tact and good sense and temper. The nurse's costume should consist of a cambric or seersucker gown, with white cap, cuffs and apron. Woolen gowns should never be permitted in a sickroom. Her authority is absolute after the physician's. She must obey his instructions to the letter, even if they are against her judgment. She has no discretion in the matter.

But the patient and the patient's family must obey her. She must never be allowed to disobey the physician's orders, and the first symptom of any such behavior should be reported immediately to the physician. All his instructions with reference to treatment, diet and care should be followed faithfully. The fact that her patient is a man should make no difference in her behavior in the sickroom. He is a patient, not a man, and she a nurse, not a woman. Whenever a nurse disobeys a physician's orders or behaves in any manner which renders her dismissal advisable, the family or the patient should request the doctor to discharge her at once and to supply her substitute. A word from him is sufficient to insure her departure.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Private Electric Motors.

A well known electrical authority has pointed out that it is now as easy and cheap to have an electric elevator in a private house as in a large office building. Stairs are literally a barbarism, to which women frequently owe ill health, and to which many delicate persons may attribute the deprivation of the full enjoyment of their homes. The cost of operating an electric elevator in, say, a five story house, making 50 or 60 trips every day, will not exceed $3 or $4 per month. The devices for operating these elevators have been so improved that an invalid or a child can manage them. The old lever arrangement can be dispensed with, and the elevator ascends or descends on the pressure of a button. It will stop only at each floor and will start only when the elevator door is closed.—New York Times.

Convention Echoes.

Hurrah for Bob Ford! He got 450 on the second ballot and was declared the unanimous nominee for treasurer.

Hon. James B. McCreary predicts a majority of 20,000 for Hardin and the democratic ticket. He will take active part in the campaign.

George E. Stone, of Casey, nominated Mr. R. C. Ford and Hon. C. H. Price, of Bell, nominated Mr. C. W. Metcalf. Each did so in a fitting speech.

Mr. C. W. Metcalf, who was defeated in the race for secretary of State, made many friends during his stay here by his charming personality. —Courier Journal.

Judge W. E. Varnon, of this place, was made member of the State executive committee for this, the eighth district, and Samuel Brown, of Shelbyville, was selected as member of the State central committee.

When Gen. Hardin was asked if he felt like a winner, he replied: "Win? Why, certainly. The democrats are going to be united, and there is no power on earth to prevent the entire ticket going through."

We regret exceedingly that our former countyman, C. W. Metcalf, was defeated for secretary of State. He took it like a man though and his friends will see that he is more successful, should he again offer for office.

We are indeed glad that our friend Mr. Ion B. Nall got in all right. He is a clever gentleman, knows almost as much about farming as he does about the newspaper business and will make a capital commissioner of agriculture.

Out of compliment to Gen. Hardin, he, with Mr. James P. Helm, was allowed to name the two members of the democratic State central committee from the State-at-large. Hon. Charles R. Long and Gen. John B. Castleman were selected.

A new feature in Kentucky politics this year will be a democratic campaign committee, in command of the fight against the republican foe. Maj. L. C. Norman and Mr. John M. Atherton have been suggested as good men to place in charge of this important work.

A Successful Meeting.

The Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society of the Danville district has just closed an interesting and successful annual meeting at the Methodist church of this place. This society was instituted for the purpose of aiding and encouraging the building of homes for ministers both in the pastoral charges at home and in mission fields, and to aid in general home mission work. In the Danville district there are 10 auxiliaries, most of which were represented in the meeting just closed. Mrs. L. M. Gray, of Danville, Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. T. J. Metcalf, of Wilmore, Miss Sadie Overstreet, of Roberts' Chapel, Mrs. C. S. Powell and Miss Annie Belle Harber, of Richmond, Mrs. S. H. Sawyer, of Wilmore, Mrs. J. P. Davis, Miss Mary Kay and Mr. Eph Pennington, of this place, were the delegates and visitors.

Miss Mary Kay, district secretary, presided over the meetings and Miss Annie Belle Harber was elected secretary. The exercises were opened on Friday evening by a devotional service conducted by president, and on Saturday morning the address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. W. E. Arnold and the response by Mrs. C. S. Powell, of Richmond. Excellent papers from Mrs. Burlington, of Covington, and Mrs. Ashbrook, of Cynthiana, were read, setting forth various phases of the work of the society. Mrs. S. P. Stagg also furnished a splendid paper on "Our Country for Christ," and Mrs. W. E. Arnold favored the audience on Saturday night with a paper on "Her oines of Early Methodism."

The presence and work of Mrs. S. H. Sawyer, the conference organizer, deserves special mention. Her paper Saturday night on "Woman As a Co-worker" was pronounced one of the ablest scriptural arguments for women's place and work in the church ever heard in Stanford; while the one Sunday night on "The General Need of Home Mission Work" exhibited a depth and range of thought that were truly surprising to many in the large congregation. Mrs. Sawyer was a Miss Hardin, of London, this State, a member of one of our most noted families, is a cousin of our townsman, Mr. Mark Hardin, and a relative of the next governor of Kentucky. She is doing an important work in the church to which she has consecrated her life. She is especially interested now in establishing industrial training schools in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. The Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society is building a school of this kind in her native town of London, where they will immediately invest $40,000 in the work.

The music furnished by the choir of the Methodist church was pronounced one of the features of this interesting occasion, while the devotional meetings were intensely spiritual and greatly enjoyed. The annual sermon was preached Sunday morning by Rev. W. E. Arnold and the meeting was fittingly closed Sunday night by the administration of the Lord's Supper.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mr. W. B. Walton, of the Hanover Herald, at Ashland, Va., and Miss Annie Johnson, a pretty and accomplished young lady of Beaver Dam, Va., were married in the parlors of the Metropolitan Hotel at Washington on the 24th. The groom is a nephew of the editor of this paper and will be remembered by the friends he made here during his connection with this paper. In the language of Rip Van Winkle, "May he live long and be happy."

The Cashier—"I would like to get off this afternoon to go to a funeral."

The Boos—"All right, Scripps. Let me know when you are ready to start and I'll be with you. The Grooms play the Giants to-day and I wouldn't miss the game for worlds." —Brooklyn Eagle.

And now they say that girls who ride the wheel are heavy and awkward in dancing. It may become a question of sacrifice—the wheel or the waltz. What a dilemma!

Fweddle—Was your uncle's mind clear to the end?

Cholly—Don't know. Haven't seen his will yet.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—The blackberry crop is said to be a complete failure.

—Tom Yeager will likely have Harry B., Tip Bruce's good gray pacer, in his string this year.

—The date of the Springfield fair has been changed from July 17, 18, and 19 to Aug. 1, 2 and 3.

—Mr. J. N. Menefee tells us that some of his wheat will not make more than five bushels to the acre.

—George Starr thinks he will steady Flying Jib down this season and that he will be a great race horse.

—Roy Beazley is making a good saddle out of Mr. F. Reid's Dorsey Gold-dust and he will be at the fairs this year.

—F. J. Bishop sold to Johnson, of Boyle, 10 hogs at 4c and bought of various parties, a bunch of two-year-old cattle at 2½c.

—John Dickerson's string is doing fairly well. Ora Wilkes has made a mile in 2:11, Muta Wilkes in 2:11, Lisa Wilkes in 2:11, and Mary Best in 2:12. —Stock Farm.

—Warren Russell, of Danville, won two races at Bloomington, Ill., last week. Cling, by C. F. Clay captured a trotting race worth $500 in 2:28, and Connor won his first pacing race, in 2:23.

—Jack Chinn's great colt, Lissah, won the Liberty Stakes, worth $4,000 to the winner, at Oakley, Simon W. second, Flying Dutchman third. The distance was a mile and a quarter. The time, 2:08.

—President H. C. McDowell, of the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, has our thanks for an invitation to the Mid-Summer meeting at Lexington beginning to-morrow and continuing three days.

—Reports say Washington county will not raise one-fourth its usual crop of tobacco. Sections that previously raised hundreds of acres have none this season. Cut worms destroyed all the plants.

—The biggest winners at the Latonia meeting were: Fleischmann & Son, $13,114; Byron McClelland, $5,822; Gus Straus, $4,740; Talbot Bros., $4,608; Fisher Tarr, $4,430; Woodford & Buckner, $4,300; J. E. Pepper, $4,350.

—A Pennsylvania farmer made a test with 50 hens and one cow and gave the result as follows: Value of milk sold from one cow, $114.10; income from 50 hens, mostly for eggs sold, $150.81. The cost of keeping the cow was given at $52, while the maintenance of the hens cost $50 and less attention than the cow.

—Never before in the history of trotting have the horses been known to go so fast in June. Such performances as the race at Sidney, where six heats were paced better than 2:12, and at Dubuque, where Chamois paced in 2:12, and Maud O. trotted a heat in 2:10, are generally reserved for much later in the season.

—The annual encampment of the Kentucky Knights of Pythias will be held at Camp Heyman, Park's Hill, July 8-14. The L. & N. will sell tickets at one fare for round trip.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Gen. Green Clay Smith died in Washington Saturday afternoon after an illness of several weeks caused by a carbuncle at the base of his brain. He was born at Richmond, this State, in 1832, and was a minister in the Baptist church.

Gen. Smith, who was a republican, took considerable interest in politics and served with distinction both in the Legislature and in Congress. He was elected to the latter from the Covington district in 1863 and re-elected in 1865. At the close of his term he was appointed governor of Montana by President Johnson. While in Congress he was offered the mission to Spain by President Lincoln, but he refused it. Gen. Smith served in the Mexican war when a mere boy and afterward studied law. In 1869 he entered the ministry of the Baptist church. The funeral, which occurred at Arlington, yesterday, was in charge of the Masonic order of which he was a member. All of his children survive him, Mrs. J. L. Whitehead, of Williamsburg, Miss Mamie and Mr. Duke Smith. The story that Gen. Smith came within one vote of being the president of the United States was denied by him. Not long ago Gen. Smith predicted that Kentucky would go republican at the next election and expressed a desire to return here and make the race for governor.

—SAM JOE BURCH began yesterday the contract of carrying the mail between Kingsville and this place. His leaving time is 7:45 A. M. and he is expected to return at 5:45 P. M. He will carry the mail in a cart drawn by a mule.
